GOOD JOB AT PENITENTIARY

Contract Labor Man is Wanted by Warden Beemer.

LEE THREATENS TO PULL OUT

With Boone County Editor and Some Type as Nucleus Warden Proposes to Start a Newspaper.

Warden A. D. Beemer of the state penitentiary is in Omaha looking for persons willing to take a contract for convict labor. The State Board of Public Lands and Buildings and the Lee Brown and Duster company are at longhairs over the renewal of the contract for prison labor. The company has been paying 50 cents a day for men and when the contract expired the state board refused a renewal at this figure. The company insists it will withdraw from the institution and the state board is inclined to let it go unless better terms may be secured.

"I rather believe the company will move," said the warden. "It picked up and left us once before when a disagreement occurred and Mr. Lee seems inclined now to take the same action. I have been looking around among Omaha business men to ascertain if any of them would be willing to assume a prison labor contract, but those I have interviewed have something in the way."

"We expect to publish a newspaper at the penitentiary soon," continued the warden. "We have some type and do a little job work there now, such as is needed by the institution, but I think we can get out a paper giving the news of the penitentiary and profitably employ some of the men. I am in Omaha partly to arrange to secure a press and needed supplies."

for the election of an auditor who shall check all accounts monthly. This, it is believed here, will be especially valuable to all cities of this class having municipally owned and operated water and lighting plants. It is expected that in the next four or five months, at all events in ample time before the next session of the legislature, a meeting of the mayors and councilmen of cities of this class will be called to discuss charter changes and unite forces for securing such amendments as are desired.

YOUNG PEOPLE CONFIRMED

Thirty-One Composed Largest Class Ever at Temple Israel.

EXERCISES ARE ATTRACTIVE

Program is Constructed and Carried Out by the Confirmants and Reflects Great Credit Upon Them.

A class of thirty-one boys and girls, the largest in the history of Temple Israel, was confirmed there Friday morning. The services attending the confirmation were elaborate and entertaining. The program was the work of the young folks. This ceremony followed that of the Feast of Shewbread Thursday night and gave great significance to the week.

Dr. Cohn, rabbi of the temple, delivered an address and awarded the certificates. The program reflected great credit upon youth and interest to the older ones.

These were the members of the class: Goldie H. Alperin, Ruth Aronstein, Freda Bellman, Henrietta Bergman, Leola Brandeis, Mollie Corby, Cecelia Feller, Martha Louise Hadra, Irene Henrietta Harris, Julia Harris, Fannie Hart, Carrie Kahn, Mabel Gertrude Kahn, Sophie Kirschman, Carrie Francis Kraus, Miriam Levy, Fannie Helen Livingston, Myrtle C. May, Ruth Polak, Florence B. Rachman, Jessie Rosenstock, Nellie Rothholz, Rose Rubin, Mortimer Asher, Albert Cahn, Jr., Walter Cohn, Harry Costa, Carl Kraus, Sidney Meyer, Frederick L. Rypins, Clarence H. Wells.

GROOM SAID TO BE MINOR

Foster Father and Minister Declare He is Nineteen, but He Swears Twenty-One.

After one of two unsuccessful attempts to get a minister who would marry him to a woman who betrays the fact that she is almost twice his age, Raymond E. Stephens of 46 North Fourteenth street, who says he is 21, and Mrs. Nellie Lampman, who says she is but 22, were married Thursday evening by Judge William Altstadt. Mrs. Lampman, now Mrs. Stephens, says she will be a witness anywhere on earth that her husband is 22 years of age, though Rev. Charles W. Savidge and Frank Winship, 400 Locust street, the boy's foster father, say he is but 19 and advised against the marriage.

Stephens and Mrs. Lampman first attracted attention when they applied for a
